"Yes," chipped in another officer standing by, "and where does Col. Thurston come in to object, anyway? Why, I remember very well that he competed in athletics when he held a lieutenant's commission. He didn't think it undignified then. Must have been more undignified than Hillman's work, too, for Harry usually wins, and as I remember it, the Colonel always ran last."

DILL SQUIRES is found.

Tommy Burns writes from London: "Bill Squires is over in Ireland training Roche, and telling him to be careful of that terrible right of mine. What will happen

We've been expecting Bill to drop into New York any day. His gradual approaca: from the West was rumored so long some people suspected that Bill was beating his way by the freight route. But Bill gave us all the slip--got through New York unrecognized and skipped for Ireland.

OMMY has a lot of other interesting things to say. He writes: "I send you a story I wrote for an English paper. I am boosting Americans, as I think Americans are much superior in everythingone or two exceptions. This little Moran and Jimmy Driscoll are the best boxers England has turned out for champions entered. Shaw and Smithbest boxers England has turned out for years. Driscoll knocked cut Bowker, and he sure must be a wonder. I'll see him fight Griffin, of New Zealand, at the National S. C. next Monday. I'm training at Jack Straw's Castle in London for Roche, and go over to Ireland about five days before the fight. Palmer was a joke. He was preity near as yellow as Johnson, but he got up nine times. If it was Johnson he might have jumped out of the ring. I don't think this fellow Roche will go over six to the first sevent whenever he wants to, and is only held back by a philan-Roche will go over six thropic desire to let old Jim Mitchell to, and is only held back by a philands. Philadelphia Jack O'Brien is slafed for an other easy battle to-night. He will take o Jack Bonner, the heavyweight pugilist, o Summit Hill, Pa., for six rounds in the main bout at the opening show of the West Endard. A. C., of West Philadelphia, of which "Foxey Jack" is the owner and Billy McCarney the matchmaker. O'Brien has probably agreed to let Bonner stay the limit, but the chance are that Bonner will get a good lacing.
